Locally controlled by patient-majority boards, ensuring that the patients of each health center are engaged in their own health care decisions, health centers employ nearly one hundred ninety thousand individuals, including physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants and certified nurse midwives who work as part of multi-disciplinary clinical teams designed to treat the whole patient; and

Whereas, Established in New Kensington in 1971, Community Health Clinic, Inc., strives to provide quality comprehensive primary healthcare services to all residents of Allegheny, Armstrong, Butler and Westmoreland Counties regardless of ability to pay. By steady adherence to the principles of fairness, reliability and integrity, it has become a leader in the community and a model that is worthy of emulation. Over the years, those in leadership positions, as well as its staff members, have contributed in a tremendous way to its growth and development.
